

An Artistic Discovery – the Congressional Arts Competition

Are you an artist? Want to win a free trip to WASHINGTON, D.C.?

Congressman Adam Schiff each year sponsors a contest for high school artists in his congressional district.

Your school may submit up to three pieces of art to represent your school's BEST.

This year's event will be held at the Huntington Library, Art Collections and Botanical Gardens on Monday, April 25, 2005.

See your art teacher for details.

1st Place:

Two tickets to WASHINGTON, D.C., and your artwork displayed for one year in the United States Capitol.

2nd Place:

Your artwork displayed for a full year in Congressman Schiff's Washington office.

3rd Place:

Your artwork displayed for a full year in Congressman Schiff's Pasadena office.

Guidelines

- Art submitted is to be two-dimensional artwork no larger than 32" x 32" including matting.
- Each entry must be an original in concept, design, and execution and may not violate any U.S. copyright laws.
- No particular subject matter required.
- Only three pieces per school may be submitted.
- The competition is limited to students in Congressman Schiff's congressional district.

Deadline

All artwork is due in Congressman Schiff's office by Friday, March 18, 2005.
